New Hire Training Checklist

A simple first-two-weeks framework to get new team members up to standard.

Day 1: Orientation

- ☐ Tour of the full restaurant: FOH, BOH, storage, office, break area
- ☐ Review employee handbook, dress code, and attendance policy
- ☐ Complete required paperwork (I-9, W-4, direct deposit)
- ☐ Introduce to manager, shift lead, and immediate teammates
- ☐ Walk through emergency procedures and exits

Days 2–3: Food Safety & Standards

- ☐ Handwashing, glove use, and cross-contamination basics
- ☐ Allergen awareness and how to flag guest allergies
- ☐ Station cleanliness and closing/opening sanitation checklist
- ☐ Uniform, grooming, and personal hygiene standards

Days 4–7: Role-Specific Training

- ☐ Shadow an experienced team member for at least two full shifts
- ☐ Walk through POS system: ringing in, modifiers, comps, voids
- ☐ Review menu items, ingredients, and preparation methods
- ☐ Practice core tasks under supervision (service, prep, or station work)
- ☐ Review house rules for tickets, timing, and communication with kitchen/FOH

Week 2: Independent Performance

- ☐ Work at least two shifts with light supervision
- ☐ Manager check-in: strengths, gaps, and next steps
- ☐ Confirm comfort with opening/closing duties relevant to the role

☐ Formal 30-day review scheduled

Adapt this checklist to your specific roles (kitchen, service, bar, host). Pair every new hire with a trained team member for at least their first three shifts.
